

Photo courtesy of Matt Smith

Closeup: Jill Dubbeldee Kuhn

Jill Dubbeldee Kuhn grew up in Southwestern Minnesota on the family farm with winters full of snirt (a marbled mixture of snow and dirt bonded together by the howling winds of the prairie). A farm girl at heart, she now lives with her family on 20 acres with two white (actually rather snirty) alpacas with adorable knees named Finnegan and Bo. Dubbeldee Kuhn is the Gallery Manager for the College of Saint Benedict and Saint John's University, a local artist, and an illustrator of three children books.

CHOCOLATE
MALTS AND WILDFLOWERS,
ACRYLIC, 24" x
36," 2015

MEADOW FLOWERS ON THE EDGE OF THE WOODS, ACRYLIC, 18" X 24," 2015

MOLLY'S LUPINES, ACRYLIC, 16" X 20", 2014

LUPINES AND LIGHTS, ACRYLIC, 12" X 24", 2014